Freehold Purchase

Scope of work: The precise stages and timescales involved in your purchase will vary depending on circumstances/factors.

In general, the process includes: Taking your instructions and giving initial advice, checking finances are in hand to fund the purchase, receiving and advising on contract and title documents, carrying out searches, obtaining further documentation if required, making enquiries of the seller's solicitors, advising on documents and information received, going through conditions of mortgage offer, advising on ownership and obtaining instructions, complying with mortgage instructions, sending final contracts out, drafting required transfer document, exchanging contracts with agreed completion date, obtaining pre-completion search results, arranging monies to be in place from both yourself and/or your high street lender, arranging completion monies to be transferred, completing the purchase, dealing with the payment of Stamp Duty Land Tax/Land Transaction Tax and dealing with registration application to HM Land Registry.

Timescale: The general timescale for a straightforward freehold registered property purchase from receipt of a full draft Contract Pack to exchange/completion is between 10-14 weeks. This general timescale is likely to be longer when the property market is highly congested.

Fees: Legal Fees based on the purchase of one whole registered Title by one individual with funding from one High Street Lender from start to Completion, including dealing with registration at HM Land Registry and the payment of Stamp Duty Land Tax if the property is in England or Land Transaction Tax if the property is in Wales, and submission of the relevant documentation, whether or not any payment is actually due.

Leasehold Purchase

Scope of work: The precise stages and timescales involved in your purchase will vary depending on circumstances/factors.

In general, the process includes: Taking your instructions and giving initial advice, checking finances are in hand to fund the purchase, receiving and advising on contract and title documents, carrying out searches, obtaining further documentation, if required making enquiries of the seller's solicitors, advising on documents and information received, going through conditions of mortgage offer, advising on ownership and obtaining instructions, complying with mortgage instructions, sending final contracts out, drafting required transfer document, exchanging contracts with agreed completion date, obtaining pre-completion search results, arranging monies to be in place from both yourself and/or your high street lender, arranging completion monies to be transferred, completing the purchase, dealing with the payment of Stamp Duty Land Tax/Land Transaction Tax and dealing with registration application to HM Land Registry.

Timescale: The general timescale for a straightforward leasehold registered property purchase from receipt of a full draft Contract Pack including all Landlord/Managing Agent/Management Company information/documents to exchange/completion is between 12-16 weeks. This general timescale is likely to be longer when the property market is highly congested.

Please note that, in addition, if you are buying a leasehold property that requires an extension of the term of years in the lease or a variation to the terms etc, then the timescale will be significantly longer and additional costs would apply.

Fees: Legal Fees based on the purchase of one whole registered Title by one individual with funding from one High Street Lender from start to Completion including dealing with registration at HM Land Registry and the payment of Stamp Duty Land Tax if the property is in England or Land Transaction Tax if the property is in Wales, and submission of the relevant documentation, whether or not any payment is actually due.

- If the Buyer's Solicitors require a Retention to be held (generally with regard to service charge apportionments that cannot be ascertained at the time of completion), then there would be a notional figure agreed between the parties in this regard (£150 has been used as an estimate in the table above, the figure could be higher than this)*.

VAT included is at the current standard rate of 20%

Such expenses vary from property to property and can, on occasion, be significantly more than the ranges given above.

Mortgage / Re-Mortgage

Scope of work: The precise stages and timescales involved in your mortgage or re-mortgage transaction will vary depending on circumstances/factors.

In general, the process includes: Taking your instructions and giving initial advice, checking your ability and capacity to mortgage/remortgage, obtaining the required Title documents and reviewing, checking finances are in hand, carrying out searches, obtaining further documentation, if required, going through conditions of mortgage offer, complying with mortgage instructions, obtaining required mortgage redemption statement, complying with secured lender's instructions, obtaining pre-completion search results, obtaining required figures/statements, arranging monies to be in place from both yourself and/or your high street lender, completing the mortgage/remortgage, dealing with redemption of mortgage and dealing with registration application to HM Land Registry.

Please note that if the property comprises a leasehold property, details would need to be obtained from the Landlord/Managing Agent/Management Company.

Timescale: The general timescale for a straightforward freehold registered mortgage/remortgage from receipt of a formal Mortgage Offer to Completion is between 3-6 weeks. This general timescale is likely to be longer where the property is leasehold as information needs to be obtained from the Landlord/Managing Agent/Management Company. In addition, general timescales are likely to be longer when the property market is highly congested.

Fees: Legal Fees based on a mortgage/remortgage of one whole registered Freehold or Leasehold Title with funding from one High Street Lender from start to Completion, including dealing with registration at HM Land Registry.

*Local Search Fee:

This is dependent upon where the property being purchased is located as each Local Authority has its own charge. You should be able to ascertain the Local Authority's cost by visiting its website. These can range from £100 to £500, dependent upon the Local Authority. Please note that when we invoice you, VAT is charged on the local land charges register searches element which local authorities do not generally add VAT to. With Basingstoke & Deane, for example, as at March 2022, a local authority search we arrange on your behalf will cost £177.60 (inclusive of VAT)

It may be the case that the new Lender will accept indemnity insurance in place of obtaining the local authority search – the premium for this will depend upon the value of the property, your lender's requirements and the indemnity insurer's requirements.

Environmental, Chancel, Water & Drainage Search fees:

- £166.00 inc VAT* estimated as dependent upon search provider's charges at the time.

It may be the case that the new Lender will accept indemnity insurance in place of obtaining the search results – the premium for this will depend upon the value of the property, your lender's requirements and the indemnity insurer's requirements, but generally lower than full search results.

Leasehold Expenses

If the property is leasehold there are certain expenses which will no doubt be required as set out in the lease for the property as well as in the Landlord/Managing Agent/Management Company information/documents. Typical expenses in this regard are set out below. However, please note that this is not exhaustive and we can only inform you of the same once known:

- Landlord/Managing Agent/Management Company Notice of Charge Fee – Often between £100.00 – £200.00 inc VAT* (estimate of £150 inc VAT is included in the table above)
- Landlord/Managing Agent/Management Company Certificate of Compliance Fee – Often between £100.00 – £200.00 inc VAT* (estimate of £150 inc VAT is included in the table above)

VAT included is charged at the current standard rate of 20%

Such expenses vary from property to property and can, on occasion, be significantly more than the ranges given above.

^Additional fee – if remortgage is via an applicable lender

There is an additional fee of £40 plus VAT in relation to us arranging compliance and securely corresponding with your lender via the LMS portal if your lender is part of that arrangement

Further Notes on Conveyancing Fees

The costs given in the tables above assume that:

- This is a standard transaction and that no unforeseen matters arise, including, for example, (but not limited to), a defect in title which requires remedying prior to completion or the preparation of additional documents ancillary to the main transaction – if this is not the case, there would be an increase in the costs above;*
- The property comprises registered land – if the property is unregistered, there would be an increase in the costs above;*
- For a leasehold transaction - that this is for the assignment of an existing lease that is not a 'Shared Ownership' lease and is not the grant of a new lease – if this is not the case, there would be an increase in the costs above;*
- The transaction is concluded in a timely manner and no unforeseen complication arises – if this is not the case, there would be an increase in the costs above;*
- All parties to the transaction are co-operative and there is no unreasonable delay from third parties – if this is not the case, there would be an increase in the costs above;*

- f) All required planning permission(s) and/or building regulations document(s) are provided – if this is not the case, there would be an increase in the costs above;
